BORD SLAINTE UD ARIS

Freagra Chearta Gael ar a 'Leithsceal'

MAR A thuairiscíomar ar INNIU i Lúnasa, dúirt urlabhraí thar ceann Bhord Sláinte an Iarthuaiscirt Lian go raibh siad ag fiosrú faoin drochbhaint a cuireadh ar Chaoilgeoirí in Ospidéal Leitir Ceanainn ach gurb é polasaí an Bhoird go ndéantar freastal cuí "ar gach bealach is féidir" ar dhaoine a iarrann seirbhís tríd Chaeilge. D'admhaigh an Bord ó shin go raibh bunús le guarán na nGaeilgeoirí sa, agus d'eisigh siad leithsceal (atá i gcló ar leathanach a 3).

Séanann urlabhraí Chearta Gael, áfach, maiteamh go Bhord faoina bpolasaí Gaeilge:

"A mhalairt atá fíor, ar ndóigh, mar is ró-eol do gach Gaeilgeoir riamh dá dtéimíg faoi chroíca an Bhoird - tá an dímheasúlacht chéanna Ghaeilge agus Ghaeltachta ag an Bhord is atá ag gach foras eile Stáit, ar sin 'civilise the natives'".

Deir sé nach bhfuil sé ach leathbhliain ann ó shéan Príomhfheidhmeannach an Bhoird, Donal O'Shea, "go dalba díongbháilte" go raibh fostaithe de chuid an Bhoird amuas ár dhóigh ar bith ar Chaeilgeoirí — "chéan sé sin d'ainneoin an Icar fianaise a bhí curtha os a chomhair ag Cearta Gael le blianta is a chruthaigh go bailte agus go hiomlán nach bhfuil sa Ghaeilgeoir ag na fostaithe seo ach coimhthíoch gan iarraidh, undesirable alien."

'Brúitcoirí Béarla'

Más leithscéal féin atá gafa ag an mBord, deir Cearta Gael, is "leithscéal bréagach mealltach amach é", mar malteur go bhfuil an Bord i bhfách le Gaeilge agus go bhfuil leitheadh agus leatrom ar lucht na Gaeilge glan in aghaidh pholasaí an Bhoird.

"Tá fostaithe de chuid an Bhoird seo ar fad ag brú Béarla as éadan agus go laethúil ar mhuintir na Gaeltachta ó liath go leanbh. Tá — agus beidh, dór maoir a bhí dhá phost óra a bhaint le Gaeltacht Mhúr Chlóc Fola le blianáth ar na mallaibh ag an Bhord (Bainisteoir do Chearrdlann an, Phobail ar an Scríobán agus Banaltra do Theaghlach) nílor luach ina fograí go mbeí dá dhaoine na bpost gnó as Gaeilge a dhéanamh le Gaeilgeoirí ná nílor tárradh Gaeilge ná eolas féin uirthi mar cháil. focht.

Tharla seo d'ainneoin a raibh de ghearáin déanta ag Cearta Gael faoi oiread "civilizers" — do bPríomhfheidhmeannach féin anuas — is a bhí cheana ar fostú ag an mBord.

I bPárláite Ghaoth Dobhair féin, mar shampla, deir siad:

- le seacht mbliana is Brúitcoirí Béarla amháin atá fostaithe ina mBanaltraí Lín-ainsire ag an Bhord — agus a liacht sin banaltra de bhunadh na Gaeltachta ar imirce thall nó amuigh sa Ghalltacht;
- is Brúitcoirí Béarla amháin a chuireann an Bord ina gOmbairleoirí chuig cruinnithe Cholsti Chúram na Sean — agus an seanduine nach bhfuil inBhéarla le cinntíceo seo an Bhoird, "bhal déanadh seisean a ghearáin leis an mhadadh";
- dúiltaíonn an Bord scun scan freastal i nGaeilge ar na páistí

Dear Mr.Mackatnuna,

The Governor has passed to me your recent letter regarding the supply of books in Irish to our library. While we are happy to supply any books which are requested by or on behalf of the prisoners, I must point out that we have had difficulty in obtaining suitable material in Irish. We depend on our local Education and Library Board for all our library books, and they, because of the limited demand, carry only a small stock of books in Irish. Of these comparatively few are suitable, either because they are too difficult or the content is too juvenile.

If, however, the Gaelic League would be prepared to recommend suitable material I'm sure the library would try and ensure that we were accommodated.

Yours sincerely,

A J Clark (Mrs)

PRESS-RELEASE.

Call for Boycott of R.T.É. 2's Opening Ceremony

Pádraig Ó Snodaigh, Uachtarán of Conradh na Gaeilge, has released to the press the text of the letter which he sent to the Cathaoirleach of the RTÉ Authority, explaining his reasons for rejecting the invitation to be present at R.T.É. 2's opening ceremony.

Stating that he took it for granted that the invitation was being extended to him in recognition of the prominent role adopted by Conradh na Gaeilge in the campaign to have R.T.É. 2 established rather than BBC 1 rebroadcast, An tUas. Ó Snodaigh said that it was for that very reason that he felt obliged to reject the invitation.

In his letter, an tUas. Ó Snodaigh recalled that the Conradh and the trade unions who were opposing the rebroadcasting of BBC 1 had convinced the public that a second national television channel would be obliged to serve the needs of the people by greatly increasing the number of home-produced programmes, by reducing R.T.É's dependence on Anglo-American material and by providing an adequate service for the Irish-speaking community.

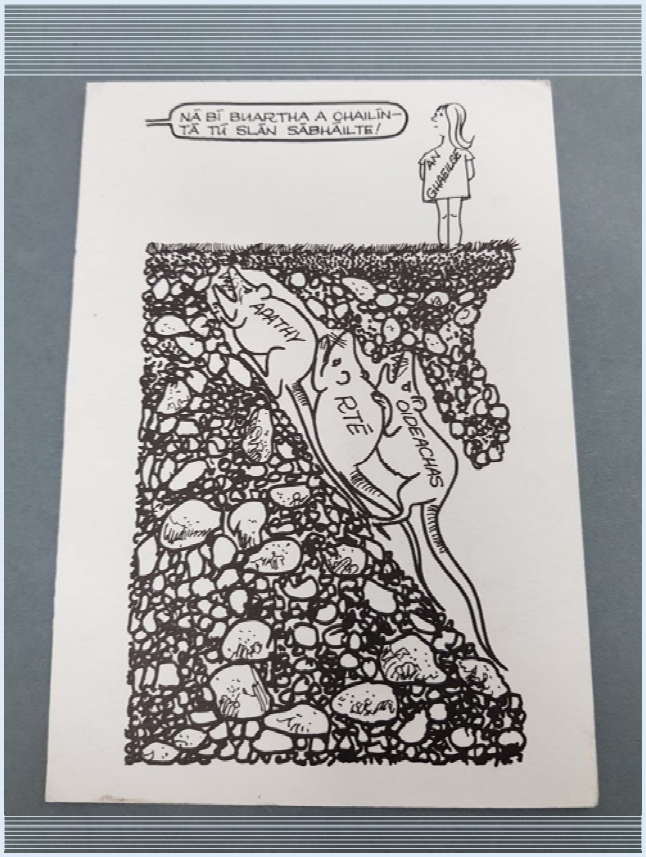

By deciding to devote 80% of R.T.É. 2's broadcasting time to rebroadcasting programmes from the BBC and ITV, R.T.É. is in fact increasing its dependence on Anglo-American programming sources and refusing to provide the people with a real choice in programmes.

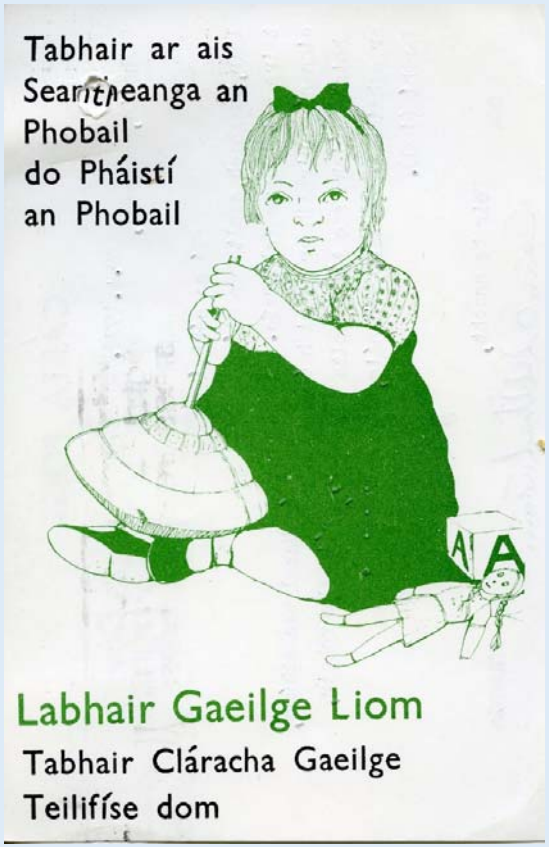

Rejecting the invitation to attend the opening ceremony Pádraig Ó Snodaigh has called on the leaders of other national organisations to do likewise.

Rights under the Official Languages Act 2003

The Official Languages Act confirms that the public has the following rights:

- The public has the right to expect that public bodies will comply with any regulations made under this Act in relation to the use of Irish in signage, stationery and recorded oral announcements (Section 9(1) of the Act).
- The public has the right to receive replies in Irish from public bodies to correspondence by post or by email written in that language (Section 9(2) of the Act).
- The public has the right to expect that public bodies will send information (for example mail shots) by post or email to the public in general or to a class of the public in general in Irish or bilingually (Section 9(3) of the Act).
- The public has the right to expect that public bodies will publish certain key documents, confirmed in the legislation, simultaneously in Irish and English including any document setting out public policy proposals, any annual report, any audited accounts or financial statement, and particular strategy statements (Section 10 of the Act).
- A person has the right to conduct his/her business before the Houses of the Oireachtas or before Oireachtas committees, sub-committees and/or joint committees through Irish (Section 6 of the Act).
- The public has the right to expect that all Acts of the Oireachtas, enacted from July 2006, will be published simultaneously in Irish and English as soon as possible after their enactment (Section 7 of the Act).
- The public has the right to use Irish in any court or in any business with any court (Section 8 of the Act).
- The public has the right to avail of all services in Irish agreed by public bodies in language schemes. The provisions of specific schemes relating to Gaeltacht areas are included here.
- The public has the right to expect An Coimisinéir Teanga to enquire into any valid complaint where public bodies are considered to have failed to fulfil their duties under the Official Languages Act, under any regulations made under the Act and/or under any scheme confirmed with a public body under the Act. The public has the right also to expect An Coimisinéir Teanga to investigate any valid complaint in which it is alleged that the provisions of any other enactments relating to the status or use of Irish have been contravened.
- The public has the right to expect to receive advice from the Office of An Coimisinéir Teanga regarding their language rights under the Act (Section 21 of the Act).

PROMOTION OF THE IRISH LANGUAGE BILL,
1983

Draft of

entitled

An Act to make provision in relation to the status of the Irish language as the first official language, for that purpose to place certain duties on the Government and Ministers of State, and to provide for other matters connected with the matters aforesaid.

Arrangement of Sections:
Section

1. General duty of Government to promote the Irish language.
2. Duty of Departments of State and of State bodies.
3. Consequential duties of Minister for the Public Service.
4. Duties of Minister for Education.
5. Right to conduct legal business in Irish.

General duty of Government to promote the Irish Language.

6. Commissioner of the Irish Language.
7. State-sponsored bodies.
8. Labels etc., to be in Irish.
9. Short title and commencement.

WHEREAS by Article 1 of the Constitution the Irish nation affirmed its inalienable, indefeasible and sovereign right to develop its political, economic and cultural life in accordance with its own genius and traditions:

AND WHEREAS it is provided by Article 8 of the Constitution that the Irish language as the national language is the first official language and that the English language is recognised as a second official language of the state.

AND WHEREAS it is further provided by Article 8 of the Constitution that provision may be made by law for the exclusive use of either official language for any one or more official purposes, either throughout the State or in any part thereof.

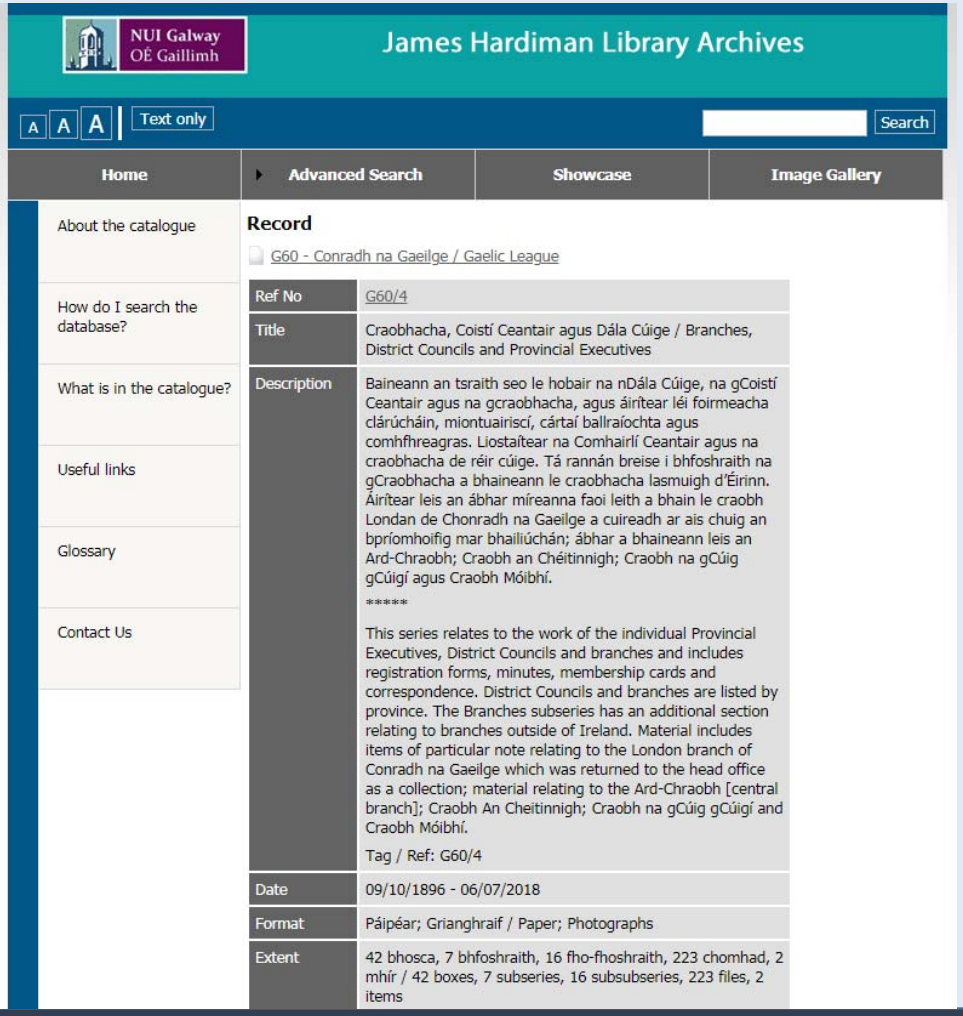

BE IT THEREFORE enacted by the Oireachtas as follows:

1. (1) It shall be the duty of the Government to ensure that in the political, economic and cultural life of the State the Irish language as the first official language is fully and satisfactorily promoted and adequately safeguarded by the several Ministers of [illegible] in accordance with this Act.

(2) In performing the duty specified in subsection (1) of this section, the Government shall have regard both to the status accorded to the Irish language by the Constitution and to the position of that language as an essential historic element of the culture and traditions of the Irish nation and as one of the varied elements which make up the culture of the people of the whole island of Ireland.
